Consent for Dual Representation and Designated Representation in the District of Columbia
(To be attached to all listing agreements and buyer or tenant brokerage agreements for transactions in the District of Columbia.)

"Designated Representation" occurs when the Seller or Landlord has entered into a listing agreement with a licensee and the Buyer or Tenant has entered into a buyer brokerage agreement with a different licensee affiliated with the same firm. Each of the licensees, known as Designated Representatives, represents fully the interest of his/her individual clients. The Supervising Broker is a Dual Representative of both the Buyer and Seller, and must not disclose information obtained in confidence to other parties in the transaction.

- If the Seller or Landlord does not consent to Designated Representation, the property may not be shown by any licensees affiliated with the brokerage firm that have entered into a representation agreement with a prospective Buyer or Tenant.
 - If the Buyer or Tenant does not consent to Designated Agency, the Buyer or Tenant may not be shown any properties listed by other licensees affiliated with the brokerage firm.
- Prior to entering into a contract in which the buyer and seller are represented by Designated Representatives, the relationship of both Designated Agents must be disclosed/confirmed in writing.

"Dual Representation" occurs when Seller or Landlord has entered into a listing agreement with a licensee and the Buyer or Tenant has entered into a buyer brokerage agreement with the same licensee. When the parties agree to dual representation, the ability of the licensee and the brokerage firm to represent either party fully and exclusively is limited. The confidentiality of all clients shall be maintained.

- If the Seller or Landlord does not consent to Dual Representation, the property may not be shown by the licensee to any prospective Buyers or Tenants that have entered into a buyer brokerage agreement with the licensee.
- If the Buyer or Tenant does not consent to Dual Agency, the licensee may not show any properties listed by the licensee.
- Prior to entering into a contract in which the buyer and seller are represented by Dual Agency, this relationship must be disclosed/confirmed in writing.

I (We) consent to Designated Representation, acknowledging the broker/firm Remax Realty Services, may represent both the seller(s) and buyer(s) or landlords and tenants, and the sales associate, Mac Mccord, license # SP98361421 as the Designated Representative for the party indicated below:

Disclosure of Information on Lead-Based Paint and/or Lead-Based Paint Hazards Federal Lead Warning Statement

A buyer/tenant of any interest in residential real property on which a residential dwelling was built prior to 1978 is notified that such property may contain lead-based paint and that exposure to lead from lead-based paint, paint chips or lead paint dust may place young children at risk of developing lead poisoning if not managed properly. Lead poisoning in young children may produce permanent neurological damage, including learning disabilities, reduced intelligence quotient, behavioral problems, and impaired memory. Lead poisoning also poses a particular risk to pregnant women. The seller/landlord of any interest in residential real property is required to disclose to the buyer/tenant the presence of known lead-based paint hazards and to provide the buyer/tenant with any information on lead-based paint hazards from risk assessments or inspections in the seller's/landlord's possession. A tenant must receive a federally approved pamphlet on lead poisoning prevention. It is recommended that a buyer conduct a risk assessment or inspection for possible lead-based paint hazards prior to purchase.

Seller's/Landlord's Disclosure

SELLER'S DISCLOSURE STATEMENT
Instructions to the Seller for Seller's Disclosure Statement

These Instructions are to assist the Seller in completing the required Seller's Disclosure Statement in order to comply with the District of Columbia Residential Real Property Seller Disclosure Act.

1. Who must complete the Seller's Disclosure Statement? The Seller, not the broker and not the management company, condominium association, cooperative association or homeowners association.

2. In what types of transactions must the Seller provide the Seller's Disclosure Statement to the Purchaser? The Act applies to the following types of transfers or sales of District of Columbia real estate:

- (a) where the property consists of one to four residential dwelling units, and,
- (b) the transaction's a sale, exchange, installment land contract, lease with an option to purchase, or any other option to purchase, and,
- (c) the purchaser expresses, in writing, an interest to reside in the property to be transferred.

However, the Act does not apply to:

- (a) court ordered transfers;
- (b) transfers to a mortgagee by a mortgagor in default;
- (c) transfers by sale under a power of sale in a deed of trust or mortgage or any foreclosure sale under a decree of foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosures;
- (d) transfers by a non-occupant fiduciary administering a decedent's estate, guardianship, conservatorship or trust;
- (e) transfers between co-tenants;
- (f) transfers made to the transferor's spouse, parent, grandparent, child, grandchild or sibling (or any combinations of the foregoing);
- (g) transfer between spouses under a divorce judgment incidental to such a judgment;
- (h) transfers or exchanges to or from any governmental entity; and
- (i) transfers made by a person of newly constructed residential property that has not been inhabited.

3. When does the Seller's Disclosure Statement have to be provided to the Purchaser? In a sale, before or at the time the prospective transferee executes a purchase agreement with the transferor. In an installment sales contract (where a binding purchase contract has not been executed), or in the case of a lease with no option to purchase, before or at the time the prospective transferee executes the installment sales contract or lease with the transferor.

4. What information must the Seller disclose? Answer ALL questions on the Seller's Disclosure Statement. If some items do not apply to your property, check "N/A" (not applicable). If you do not know the facts, check "UNKNOWN". Report actually known conditions referred to in the questions. Each disclosure must be made in "good faith" (honesty in fact in the making of the disclosure). Attach additional pages with your signature if additional space is required.

The Seller of a condominium unit, cooperative unit, or a lot in a homeowners association, is to provide information only as to the Seller's unit or lot, and not as to any common elements, common areas or other areas outside of the unit or lot.

This is the required Seller's Disclosure Statement approved by the Washington, DC Board of Real Estate.

SELLER'S DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Instructions to the Seller for Seller's Disclosure Statement

5. What is the remedy if the Seller does not provide the Seller's Disclosure Statement to the Transferee? If the Seller's Disclosure Statement is delivered after the purchaser executes the purchase agreement, installment sales contract or lease with an option to purchase, the purchaser may terminate the transaction by written notice to the seller not more than five (5) calendar days after receipt of the Seller's Disclosure Statement by the purchaser, and the deposit must be returned to the purchaser. The right to terminate is waived if not exercised before the earliest of:

- (a) the making of an application for a mortgage loan (if the lender discloses that the right to rescind terminates on submission of the application); or
- (b) settlement or date of occupancy in the case of a sale; or
- (c) occupancy in the case of a lease with an option to purchase.

6. If the Seller finds out different information after providing the Seller's Disclosure Statement to the Purchaser, how does this impact a ratified contract? If information becomes inaccurate after delivery of the disclosure form, the inaccuracy shall not be grounds for terminating the transaction.

7. How must a Seller deliver the Seller's Disclosure Statement to the Transferee? The Seller's Disclosure Statement must be delivered by personal delivery, facsimile delivery, or by registered mail to the transferee. Execution by the transferor of a facsimile is considered execution of the original.

This is the required Seller's Disclosure Statement approved by the Washington, DC Board of Real Estate.
