Therefore, the Buyer should obtain a dual-powered smoke detector or a battery-powered smoke detector. Will the smoke detectors in the Property provide an alarm in the event of power outage?
? YES ? NO ? UNKNOWN

(III) DISCLOSURES

18. LEGAL REQUIREMENT. A contract for the sale of real property is required to be in writing to be enforceable under the laws of the State of Maryland. Once signed by the parties, the contract becomes a legally binding agreement. The original terms of the contract can only be altered thereafter with the agreement of the parties expressed in writing. All parties have the right to be represented by an attorney and are encouraged to seek competent advice if they do not understand any term(s) of the Contract. The broker/agent is required to promptly submit all written offers to the Seller.

19. SETTLEMENT. All persons to be in title and/or responsible where a mortgage is to be created should be present at the time of settlement and may be required to provide proper identification. Prior to settlement, a lender normally requires that Buyer obtain and provide a fully paid homeowner's insurance policy, a termite inspection report, and various certifications which may be applicable to improved properties. Buyer should be prepared at the time of settlement to pay the settlement costs and the balance due under the Contract. Buyer must provide cash, wired funds, bank check or certified check for amounts to be paid at settlement. In some cases, Seller may be required to provide funds in excess of the sales proceeds in order for settlement to occur, in which event, Seller also should be prepared to make payment in an approved form. Any party uncertain of the amount required at settlement should make inquiry of the title company or settlement attorney prior to settlement. Buyer should establish gas, electric and water service in Buyer's name commencing the day of settlement.

20. RENTAL. If any portion of the Property is to be rented to tenants by Buyer, the local government may require that the Property be registered prior to any rental and a registration fee may be assessed by the local government. It is recommended that Buyer contact local government regarding rental license requirements and other rental information. If the Property is now or has been rented to tenants, local laws may give the tenants certain rights to purchase the Property. These rights are set forth in the Contract. Effective December 1, 1996, certain disclosures are required regarding the presence of lead paint in certain rental properties.

21. EQUAL HOUSING OPPORTUNITY. An owner of a residential dwelling is required by federal, state and local law to offer the property for sale or for lease to treat all parties in a non-discriminatory manner on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, mental or physical handicap, familial status, or national origin, and all other protected classifications under Federal, State and local fair housing laws. Prince George's County requires, in addition to the federal and state protected classes of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, physical and mental handicap, age, marital status or familial status, that the Property shall be made available to all persons without regard to sexual orientation, political opinion, marital status, personal appearance or occupation.

22. COVENANTS AND RESTRICTIONS AFFECTING PROPERTY. A majority of homes, whether new or re-sale, located in a subdivision are subject to certain restrictions applicable to the use of the Property as well as the construction of certain improvements to the Property. Such restrictions are referred to as covenants and, in the case of Property subject to a Homeowners Association or Condominium Association, the covenants are contained in a Declaration of Covenants and Restrictions as well as the Bylaws of the Association. However many properties are also subject to covenants even though the Property is not subject to a Homeowners Association or Condominium Association. Buyers are encouraged to inquire as to any covenants and restrictions which may be applicable to the Property which is being considered for purchase.

23. PRIVATE AGREEMENTS. Some communities may be subject to agreements, covenants or restrictions relating to the cost of certain maintenance items, restricting the use of properties or dealing with other matters. For example, properties sharing a driveway are often subject to such agreements. These private agreements do not fall within the required disclosures of HOA or condominium laws and may or may not be recorded. Buyer should make inquiries of Seller prior to or at the time of Contract.

24. CERTIFICATIONS. Depending upon the type of mortgage applied for by buyer, lenders may require certain certifications that relate to a Property or require inspections/appraisals that certify that a Property is free of specific hazards or conditions.

25. NOTICES. Unless otherwise provided herein, any notices required to be given to Seller by the Contract shall be effective as of the date on which such notice is delivered to Seller or to the Agent of Seller named in the Contract. Notices required to be given to Buyer by the Contract shall be effective when notice is delivered to Buyer, or the Buyer's Agent named in the Contract. Where Dual Agency is utilized, notice to Agent of Seller shall include notice to the Intra-Company Agent assigned to Seller and Notice to Buyer shall include notice to the Intra-Company Agent assigned to Buyer. Alternatively, notice shall be effective on the third business day (Monday through Saturday, excluding federal designated holidays) following U. S. Postal mailing of said notice to Buyer or Seller, as appropriate, at the address shown on the Contract. Notices required under the Contract shall be in writing including transmission through wired or electronic medium which produces a tangible record of the transmission (such as a telegram, mailgram, telecopier or fax).

26. CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION, COOPERATIVE, HOMEOWNER'S ASSOCIATION AND COMMON OWNERSHIP COMMUNITY APPROVAL. If this sale is subject to the approval or right of first refusal of the council of unit owners or board of directors of the condominium co-op, HOA or common ownership community then Seller agrees to immediately present the Contract to such council or board for action or consideration. In the event the Contract is disallowed by the appropriate council or board, the Contract shall be null and void and of no further legal force and effect, and Buyer's deposit shall be returned in accordance with the Deposits paragraph of the Contract.

27. INSURANCE. Buyer acknowledges that, as a condition of making a mortgage loan, lenders may require proof of hazard insurance coverage and may also require flood insurance coverage.

28. ENVIRONMENTAL CONSIDERATIONS, HAZARDOUS MATERIALS. There are many hazardous materials that could affect a Property. The Brokers and their agents will generally have no knowledge of these hazardous materials and do not have the technical expertise to ascertain or advise you of the presence or significance of these hazardous materials. Buyer has the right to request, as a condition of an offer and, subject to acceptance by the Seller, the employment of a specialist of Buyer's choice to provide an analysis of hazardous materials which may be present. Hazardous materials inside the home can include, but are not limited to, cleaning chemicals, paint, asbestos, radon, lead paint, petroleum products, lawn and garden chemicals and indoor air pollutants that can accumulate. Hazardous materials outside the home can include, but are not limited to, those found in contaminated land, water, landfills and other disposal sites, industrial air and water emissions, radiation from high tension wires, and those which may be present in underground storage tanks. Generally, additional information pertaining to these materials is available from the Maryland Department of the Environment (MDE) at (410) 537-3000.

29. FIRE-RETARDANT TREATED PLYWOOD. The use of fire-retardant treated (FRT) plywood as roof sheathing may result in the loss of wood strength through thermal degradation. The extent of such degradation depends upon the particular fire-retardant treatment used as well as the temperature levels and the degree of moisture present in the roof and attic systems. Additional information regarding FRT plywood is available from the National Association of Home Builders at (800) 368-5242. For information as to whether the Property was constructed with FRT plywood, Buyer may contact the local Department of Building Inspections and Permits and/or request that a home inspector determine the condition of FRT plywood if present.

30. RADON. The MDE and U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) have found levels of naturally occurring radon in some areas of Maryland that exceed the levels considered acceptable by the EPA. Studies have shown that extended exposure to high levels of radon can adversely affect your health. Radon testing firms in the area have special equipment to detect elevated level of radon on a Property. They can also recommend actions to be taken to decrease concentrations of radon to an acceptable level. Buyer is advised to contact the Center for Radiological Health at the MDE at (410) 537-3000 for further information on radon.

31. LEAD PAINT. the MDE has found that many homes built before 1978 contain lead paint, the ingestion of which can be particularly dangerous. The potential dangers of lead paint may be greatly exacerbated by repairs and renovations performed without the assistance of a qualified lead paint removal specialist. Buyer is advised to contact the Lead Paint Poisoning Prevention Division of the MDE at (410) 537-3000 for further information on lead paint. Specialists are available to determine if lead paint has been used in a Property. In some cases, a lead paint inspection may be mandatory.

32. ASBESTOS. Asbestos has been used in residential property for insulation, fireproofing, acoustical, decorative and other purposes. Common uses of asbestos include insulation around boilers and pipes, surfacing material, ceiling and floor tiles, roofing material, wallboard, and cement pipe. Improper handling or removal of asbestos during renovations or repairs may damage the asbestos and cause asbestos particles to become airborne, potentially causing health risks. Buyer is advised to contact the MDE at (410) 537-3000 for further information on asbestos.

NOTICE TO BUYER AND SELLER OF BUYER'S RIGHTS AND SELLER'S OBLIGATIONS UNDER MARYLAND'S SINGLE FAMILY RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY CONDITION DISCLOSURE LAW

ADDENDUM # _____ dated _____ to the Contract of Sale dated _____, between Buyer _____ and Seller CELESTINO P. ESCOBAR
for Property known as 8603 PRODCIA AVE, GAITHERSBURG, MD, 20878

NOTE: This notice does not apply to: (1) the initial sale of single family residential property which has never been occupied, or for which a certificate of occupancy has been issued within one year prior to the date of the Contract; (2) a transfer that is exempt from the transfer tax under Subsection 13-207 of the Tax-Property Article, except land installments contracts of sale under Subsection 13-207(a)(1) of the Tax-Property Article and options to purchase real property under Subsection 13-207(a)(12) of the Tax-Property Article; (3) a sale by a lender or an affiliate or subsidiary of a lender that acquired the real property by foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosure; (4) a sheriff's sale, tax sale, or sale by foreclosure, partition or by court appointed trustee; (5) a transfer by a fiduciary in the course of the administration of a decedent's estate, guardianship, conservatorship, or trust; (6) a transfer of single family residential real property to be converted by the buyer into a use other than residential use or to be demolished; or (7) a sale of unimproved real property.

Section 10-702 of the Real Property Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland ("Section 10-702") requires that a seller of a single family residential property ("the property") deliver to each buyer, on or before entering into a contract of sale, on a form published and prepared by the Maryland Real Estate Commission, EITHER:

- (A) A written property condition disclosure statement listing all defects including latent defects, or information of which the seller has actual knowledge in relation to the following:
 - (i) Water and sewer systems, including the source of household water, water treatment systems, and sprinkler systems;
 - (ii) Insulation;
 - (iii) Structural systems, including the roof, walls, floors, foundation and any basement;
 - (iv) Plumbing, electrical, heating, and air conditioning systems;
 - (v) Infestation of wood-destroying insects;
 - (vi) Land use matters;
 - (vii) Hazardous or regulated materials, including asbestos, lead-based paint, radon, underground storage tanks, and licensed landfills;
 - (viii) Any other material defects, including latent defects, of which the seller has actual knowledge;
 - (ix) Whether the smoke detectors will provide an alarm in the event of a power Outage; and
 - (x) If the property relies on the combustion of a fossil fuel for heat, ventilation, hot water, or clothes dryer operation, whether a carbon monoxide alarm is installed on the property.

Latent defects under Section 10-702 means material defects in real property or an improvement to real property that:

- (i) A buyer would not reasonably be expected to ascertain or observe by a careful visual inspection, and
- (ii) Would pose a threat to the health or safety of the buyer or an occupant of the property, including a tenant or invitee of the buyer.

OR

(B) A written disclaimer statement providing that:

- (i) Except for latent defects of which the seller has actual knowledge, the seller makes no representations or warranties as to the condition of the real property or any improvements on the real property; and
- (ii) The buyer will be receiving the real property "as is," with all defects, including latent defects, that may exist, except as otherwise provided in the contract of sale of the property.

Buyer _____

Seller

At the time the disclosure or disclaimer statement is delivered to you ("the buyer"), you are required to date and sign a written acknowledgement of receipt on the disclosure or disclaimer statement which shall be included in or attached to the contract of sale.

Section 10-702 further provides that a buyer who receives the disclosure or disclaimer statement on or before entering into a contract of sale does not have the right to rescind the contract based upon the information contained in the disclosure or disclaimer statement.

You are hereby notified that, in certain circumstances, you have the right to rescind your contract with the seller if the seller fails to deliver to you the written property condition disclosure or disclaimer statement. Section 10-702 provides that a buyer who does not receive the disclosure or disclaimer statement on or before entering into the contract has the unconditional right, upon written notice to the seller or seller's agent:

- (i) To rescind the contract at any time before the receipt of the disclosure or disclaimer statement or within 5 days following receipt of the disclosure or disclaimer statement; and
- (ii) To the immediate return of any deposits made on account of the contract.

Your right to rescind the contract under Section 10-702 terminates if not exercised before making a written application to a lender for a mortgage loan, if the lender discloses in writing at or before the time application is made that the right to rescind terminates on submission of the application or within 5 days following receipt of a written disclosure from a lender who has received your application for a mortgage loan, if the lender's disclosure states that your right to rescind terminates at the end of that 5 day period.

Your rights as a buyer under Section 10-702 may not be waived in the contract and any attempted waiver is void. Your rights as the buyer to terminate the contract under Section 10-702 are waived conclusively if not exercised before:

- (i) Closing or occupancy by you, whichever occurs first, in the event of a sale; or
- (ii) Occupancy, in the event of a lease with option to purchase.

The information contained in the property condition disclosure statement is the representation of the seller and not the representation of the real estate broker or sales person, if any. A disclosure by the seller is not a substitute for an inspection by an independent professional home inspection company. You should consider obtaining such an inspection. The information contained in a disclosure statement by the seller is not a warranty by the seller as to the condition of the property of which condition the seller has no actual knowledge or other condition, including latent defects, of which the seller has no actual knowledge. The seller is not required to undertake or provide an independent investigation or inspection of the property in order to make the disclosures required by Section 10-702. The seller is not liable for an error, inaccuracy or omission in the disclosure statement if the error, inaccuracy or omission was based upon information that was not within the actual knowledge of the seller or was provided to the seller by a third party as specified in Section 10-702(i) or (j).

You may wish to obtain professional advice about the property or obtain an inspection of the property.

The undersigned buyer(s) and seller(s) acknowledge receipt of this notice on the date indicated below and acknowledge that the real estate licensee(s) named below have informed the buyer(s) and the seller(s)' rights and the seller(s)' obligations under Section 10-702.

Understanding Whom Real Estate Agents Represent

Before you decide to sell or buy or rent a home you need to consider the following information:

Agents Who Represent the Seller

Seller's Agent: A seller's agent works for the real estate company that lists and markets the property for the sellers, or landlords, and exclusively represents the sellers or landlords. That means that he or she may assist the buyer or tenant in purchasing or renting the property, but his or her duty of loyalty is only to the sellers or landlords. The seller pays the seller's agent's fees as specified in a written listing agreement.

Cooperating Agent: A cooperating agent works for a real estate company different from the company for which the seller's agent works. The cooperating agent can assist a buyer or tenant in purchasing or renting a property, but his or her duty of loyalty is only to the sellers or landlords. The cooperating agent's fee is paid by the sellers or landlords through the seller's agent's company.

Agents Who Represent the Buyer

Presumed Buyer's Agent (no written agreement): When a person goes to a real estate agent for assistance in finding a home to buy or rent, the agent is presumed to be representing the buyer and can show the buyer properties that are not listed by the agent's real estate company. A presumed buyer's agent may not make or prepare an offer or negotiate a sale for the buyer. The buyer does not have an obligation to pay anything to the presumed agent.

If for any reason the buyer does not want the agent to represent him or her as a presumed agent, either initially or at any time, the buyer can decline or terminate a presumed agency relationship simply by saying so.

Buyer's Agent (by written agreement): A buyer or tenant may enter into a written contract with a real estate agent which provides that the agent will represent the buyer or tenant in locating a property to buy or rent. The agent is then known as the buyer's agent. That agent assists the buyer in evaluating properties and preparing offers, and negotiates in the best interests of the buyer or tenant. The agent's fee is paid according to the written agreement between the agent and the buyer or tenant. If you as a buyer or tenant wish to have an agent represent you exclusively, you must enter into a written buyer agency agreement.

Dual Agents

The possibility of dual agency arises when the buyer's agent and the seller's agent both work for the same real estate company, and the buyer is interested in property listed by that company. The real estate company, or broker, is called the "dual agent". Dual agents do not act exclusively in the interests of either the seller or buyer, or landlord or tenant, and therefore cannot give undivided loyalty to either party. There may be a conflict of interest because the interests of the seller and buyer may be different or adverse.

If both seller and buyer, or landlord and tenant, agree to dual agency by signing a Consent For Dual Agency form, then the real estate company (the "dual agent") will assign one agent to represent the seller or landlord (the seller's "intra-company agent") and another agent to represent the buyer or tenant (the buyer's "intra-company agent"). Intra-company agents may provide the same services to their clients as exclusive seller's or buyer's agents, including advising their clients as to price and negotiation strategy, provided the clients have both consented to be represented by dual agency.

If either party does not agree to dual agency, the real estate company may withdraw the agency agreement for that particular property with either the buyer or seller, or both. If the seller's agreement is terminated, the seller must then either represent him or herself or arrange to be represented by an agent from another real estate company. If the buyer's agreement is terminated, the buyer or tenant may choose to enter into a written buyer agency agreement with an agent from a different company. Alternatively, the buyer or tenant may choose not to be represented by an agent of his or her own but simply to receive assistance from the seller's agent, from another agent in that company, or from a cooperating agent from another company.

No matter what type of agent you choose to work with, you have the following rights and responsibilities in selling or buying or renting property:

>Real estate agents are obligated by law to treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly. They must exercise reasonable care and diligence and maintain the confidentiality of clients. They must not discriminate in the offering of properties; they must promptly present each written offer or counteroffer to the other party; and they must answer questions truthfully.

>Real estate agents must disclose all material facts that they know or should know relating to a property. An agent's duty to maintain confidentiality does not apply to the disclosure of material facts about a property.

>All agreements with real estate agents should be in writing and should explain the duties and obligations of the agent. The agreement should explain how the agent will be paid and any fee-sharing agreements with other agents.

>You have the responsibility to protect your own interests. You should carefully read all agreements to make sure they accurately reflect your understanding. A real estate agent is qualified to advise you on real estate matters only. If you need legal or tax advice, it is your responsibility to consult a licensed attorney or accountant.

Any complaints about a real estate agent may be filed with the Real Estate Commission at 500 North Calvert Street, Baltimore, MD 21202. (410) 230-6200.

When Dual Agency May Occur

The possibility of dual agency arises when:

- >The buyer is interested in a property listed by a real estate company; and
- >The seller's agent and the Buyer's agent work for that same real estate company.

Before the buyer and seller can proceed to be represented by a dual agent, they must both sign a Consent For Dual Agency. If they have previously signed a Consent For Dual Agency, they must affirm their consent for the sale of a particular property to a particular buyer.

Important Considerations
Before Making a Decision About Dual Agency

~~For~~ A dual agent does not exclusively represent either the seller or buyer and there may be a conflict of interest because the interests of the seller and buyer may be different or adverse.

~~For~~ As a dual agent, the real estate company does not owe undivided loyalty to either the seller or buyer.

Your Choices Concerning Dual Agency

When a dual agency situation in fact arises, the buyer and seller have the following options:

1. Consent in writing to dual agency. If all parties consent in writing, the real estate company (the "dual agent") will assign one real estate agent from the company to represent the seller or landlord (the seller's "intra-company agent") and another agent from the company to represent the buyer or tenant (the buyer's "intra-company agent"). Intra-company agents may provide the same services to their clients as an exclusive seller's or buyer's agent, including advising their clients as to price and negotiation strategy.

2. Do not consent to Dual Agency. If either the buyer of the seller, or landlord or tenant, refuses to consent in writing to dual agency, the real estate company must terminate the agency agreement for that particular property with either the buyer or the seller, or both. If the seller's agreement is terminated, the seller must then either represent him or herself or arrange to be represented by an agent from another real estate company. If the buyer's agreement is terminated, the buyer or tenant may choose to enter into a written buyer agency agreement with an agent from a different company. Alternatively, the buyer or tenant may choose not to be represented by an agent of his or her own but simply to receive assistance from the seller's agent, from another agent in that company, or from a cooperating agent from another company.

Duties of a Dual Agent and Intra-Company Agent

Like other agents, dual agents and intra-company agents must keep confidential information about a client's bargaining position or motivations unless the client gives consent to disclose the information. For example, a dual agent or intra-company agent may not tell the other party, or the other party's agent, without consent of the client:

- >Anything the client asks to be kept confidential*,
- >That the seller would accept a lower price or other terms,
- >That the buyer would accept a higher price or other terms,
- >The reasons why a party wants to sell or buy, or
- >That a party needs to sell or buy quickly.

*However, like all agents, a dual agent and intra-company agent must disclose any material facts about a property to the other party.

How Dual Agents Are Paid

Only the dual agent receives compensation on the sale of a property listed by that company.

If the financial bonus is offered to an agent who sells property that is listed with his company, this fact must be disclosed in writing to both the buyer and the seller.

I have read the above information, and I understand the terms of the dual agency. I understand that I do not have to consent to a dual agency, and that if I do not consent, there will not be a dual agency. I hereby voluntarily consent to have partly act as dual agent for me as the:
